

Curious Conversations Programme – 2023

Curious Conversations is a Programme aimed at supporting the development of a coaching culture within an organisation. It offers leaders and future leaders the opportunity to find out what coaching is and how to introduce this approach into everyday conversations. This Programme will be delivered over 4 short workshops, each of 2.5-hour duration (10 hours in total). The programme includes:

- Contracting for great results
- Asking great questions
- Listening with empathy
- Coaching tools and techniques
- Understanding your unique coaching style

This programme is offered free to HPMA members in band 4 and above who are part of the HPMA North Academy (North East and Cumbria, Yorkshire & Humber, and North West branches).

To apply, please secure the support of your line manager, check that you are available to attend all four sessions for the cohort, complete the form below asap and return it to jo.owens@hpma.org.uk
